Report of Principal and School Improvement Council

2007-2008 was a great year for the AJMS family. Students responded well to expectations academically, socially, and athletically. Our MAP data indicates growth in nearly all academic areas and grade levels. We had 11 Junior Scholars and many more a point or two away from inclusion in that category. Our Academic challenge team had a winning record and placed second in the District Bowl. We had continued improvement on our PACT scores and school score. We anticipate a continuation of this pattern of growth.

Students displayed an improvement in social skills and behavior. Our discipline records document a drop in the number of office referrals and suspensions. In addition, students are participating in many community service projects and environmental activities. There is reason to celebrate the efforts of teachers, students, and the community for the products they produced with the activities and fundraisers for Juvenile Diabetes, Relay for Life, Pennies for Patients, recycling, and beautification projects. With the cooperation and partnership of several community groups and businesses, the AJMS family generated over $15,000 for the events and organizations. What a strong statement about character and social responsibility. We are certainly proud of everyone involved for their support and commitment to AJMS.

AJMS is also excited about the Fine Arts curriculum and the benefits students and the community gain through the arts. Our band, chorus, art, drama, music, and dance classes enable us to present student productions to the community and enhance the learning opportunities for all students. It is well documented that a dynamic curriculum impacts every aspect of an individual's learning. At AJMS we feel fortunate to have the structure and schedule to address a total educational experience that reaches all individuals. The potential to grow individually is a fundamental aspect of our climate and culture borne through and supported by staff, student, and community cooperation and dedication.
